

THE OFFICE OF
COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
INFORM. ENGAGE. INSPIRE.

Public Service
Credit Union

The Colorado Attorney General, Cynthia Coffman, and her Office of Community Engagement, along with Public Service Credit Union, are proud to present MoneyWi$er™, an interactive, online learning course specifically designed to introduce financial education skills for grades 4-6.

Covering everything from goal setting to making a budget, Colorado MoneyWi$er™ delivers critical financial concepts in an engaging and fun way to Colorado elementary school students at no cost to schools.

Recommended
Grade Level: 4-6

Total Time:
2.5 hours

Standards Alignment:
Jump$tart Standards,
U.S. State Financial
Literacy Standards

Interactive,
digital learning

TOPICS COVERED

- Good & Bad Money Decisions
- Income & Careers
- Needs vs. Wants
- Credit & Borrowing
- Insurance & Safety Management
- Savings & Investing

TEACHERS RECEIVE

- Student score reports on your teacher dashboard
- Supplemental, offline lesson plans and answer keys
- Pre and post assessment scores from students
- Engaging discussion guides
- Detailed guide with your state-specific standards

NEXT STEPS

MoneyWi$er™ is available at no cost to Colorado elementary schools, thanks to the generous support of the Colorado Attorney General's Office of Community Engagement and Public Service Credit Union. To bring financial education to your school, please contact Samara Cipriani at SCIPRIANI@EVERFI.COM or 518-461-7986.